Well done to our wonderful lunch ladies for cooking so many meals for our families this week. Everyone enjoyed the fabulous lunches. Aren't the children lucky to have such amazing meals cooked for them every day?

All the children will be taking part in assemblies over the next two weeks to showcase their learning so far this term. Please remember that we cannot accommodate pre-schoolers or babes-in-arms.

Parent consultation meetings are being held the week after next. Please check the dates on the booking form you are sent as different year groups are meeting parents on different days.

Don't forget to buy your FoRPS disco tickets before the end of Friday 17th October to get the early bird discount. The price goes up from £4 to £5 on Monday 20th!

The 100% attendance prize draw winner this week is …
