

Children enjoy books, reading fluently and for pleasure and have developed a love of literature.

Children write clearly and accurately to communicate ideas for different purposes

Children are confident speakers who communicate thoughts, opinions and ideas effectively.

Children appreciate live drama performances and theatre productions.

Children can access information and show understanding of a range of texts.

Children spell accurately and have the tools to correct misspelt words.

English Impact

Children have the confidence to perform to an audience.

Children read widely and often.

Children present work coherently in a neat and legible style.