

Children have a love of physical activity and sport.

Children are confident and resilient and will strive for their personal best.

Children will have experienced a range of active experiences and clubs.

Children will enjoy PE and find it fun and engaging.

Children have the values and skills to celebrate and respect the success of others.

Children will have the skills and mind-set to have the capabilities to be successful in their sporting challenges.

PE IMPACT

Children will know how to find local clubs and partnerships.

Children will have healthy minds and an awareness of mental well-being.

Children have a greater understanding of how to live a healthy lifestyle and to make healthy choices.