

Children will learn about themselves as developing individuals and members of their community.

Citizenship

The younger children in the school will learn how to be healthy, safe and follow rules.

They will be aware of how their own choices can affect local, national and global issues.

They will be able to take responsibility for themselves and learn about their own and others feelings.

They will develop a sense of social justice and moral responsibility.

IMPACT

Children will become more aware of the wider world and the interdependence of the communities within it.