

Pupils who can consider, analyse, interpret and evaluate issues of belief and faith.

RE

Pupils who have a developed sense of identity and belonging so they can flourish individually within their communities and the wider world.

Pupils who can ask challenging questions about the meaning and purpose of life, and what is right and wrong.

Pupils who have an awareness and understanding of religious beliefs, practices, and forms of expression.

Pupils who have an understanding of the influence of religion on individuals, families, communities and cultures.

IMPACT

Pupils who are prepared for adult life and employment because they are respectful and are sensitive to others.