

SCIENCE

To develop enjoyment, interest and open mindedness.

To understand that science is used in all aspects of everyday life.

To build on children's natural curiosity and develop a scientific approach to problems.

To have an enquiring mind - developing investigation skills.

To understand and use scientific language.

Understand the importance of a healthy lifestyle.

IMPACT

To build practical skills and understanding the importance of a fair testing.

To use technology or computing to develop their scientific knowledge.

Aware of the impact that humans have made on local and global environments.